

IN SOCIETY.

In Love's Domain.

The important event of the coming week in society circles is the marriage, which takes place Tuesday evening, of Miss Mamie Porter and Mr. Charles Spencer Mann. The ceremony will be performed at 6:30 at St. Paul's church, and will be followed by a wedding supper for the family and the members of the bridal party at the Kenyon. The bride will be attended by Miss Edith Holabird of Los Angeles as maid of honor, and by the Misses McGuigan of Montreal, McMillan, McIntyre and Kinney as bridesmaids. Mr. Sam Porter will be the best man, and the ushers will be Mr. Will Hall, Mr. George Lawrence, Mr. Fred Phelps of Los Angeles and Lieutenant White of Fort Douglas. Little David Keith will be the ring bearer and Ernie McKeen the flower girl. The bride and groom will leave on the late train for the coast, and later will make their home in Los Angeles.

One of the most interesting announcements of the past week was that of the marriage in Los Angeles of Miss Virginia Breeden and Lieutenant John Anderson Berry. The wedding was a very quiet one, but the friends of the young people in this city and Ogden made haste to extend their good wishes and congratulations to them. They will remain in Los Angeles for the winter, although the groom may make a hurried trip to his post immediately.

A very pretty home wedding of the past week was that of Miss E. Lundquist and Mr. W. R. Reinhardt, which took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother. Only a few of the intimate friends of the two young people were present to witness the ceremony, which was followed by a delightful wedding supper. Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt will be at home after Nov. 20 at 222 South Second East street.

The marriage of Miss Martha Montgomery and Charles W. Snyder took place Wednesday, Nov. 5, at high noon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Josephine Montgomery, 1005 South West Temple street.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John C. Lincoln of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder have the best wishes of a large circle of friends. They will be at home after Dec. 1 at Elsinore, Utah.

The marriage of Mrs. Harriet Rose and Mr. John Weir will take place on Tuesday in New York. Mr. Weir left for the metropolis during the past week. After a short tour together in the east, they will return to the city to make their home here.

Miss Katie Cunningham Pitt of Sugar House ward and Mr. W. H. Jensen of Forest Dale were married in the province of Alberta, Canada, last week.

The marriage of Miss Edna Swenson and Mr. William G. Grimes will take place tomorrow evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Swenson.

Cards have been received in the city announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Florence Reed Small and Mr. Julius Edward Warnecke, which will take place on the 11th inst. in Leadville. The bride was once one of the belles of the younger set in society, and has many warm friends in the city, who will be glad to learn of the happy event.

This afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Neill and Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson will give an informal reception in honor of Miss Bridwell at the rooms of the Neill family in the Dooly block. No invitations have been issued for the affair, but all friends will be welcome, and as this will be the last of Mrs. Neill's afternoons at home, doubtless many will avail themselves of this opportunity to meet Miss Bridwell, whose stay in the city will be far too brief.

Mr. Will Hall will take the members of Miss Porter's bridal party to Elginham this morning, where they will spend the day making a tour of the hills and visiting some of the largest mines.

Dr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Beattie and Mr. and Mrs. Joy Johnson give a large evening reception Wednesday at the home of the former.

Mrs. F. L. Oswald has invitations out for two large card parties on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Mrs. W. R. Witter entertains at cards on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Scott Crismon of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Windsor V. Rice entertains at a large card party on Tuesday at the Knutsford.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Perry will entertain at dinner this evening at the Knutsford.

Miss Katherine Page entertains at a luncheon at her home Wednesday.

At Cards.

The Misses Hall gave a delightful card party last Monday in honor of Miss Porter. The home was prettily decorated with yellow and white, the colors being the favorites of the chrysanthemums and the shades for the lights throughout the rooms. About thirty guests were present and enjoyed the game of six-three, prizes being won by Mrs. K. C. Park and Mrs. E. N. Piper. Besides the game several delightful musical selections were given by Miss Frick.

Hop For Miss Porter.

One of the most delightfully informal affairs of the past week was the hop at the post Friday evening, given in honor of Miss Porter. Lieutenant White made a most ideal host, and he was ably assisted in receiving his guests by Mrs. Callif and Miss Rubb. Delightful dance music was furnished by the regimental band, and a few hours of the most charming sociability in the hall were followed by a Welsh rabbit supper for the officers' club. A number of the younger society set besides the bridal party went up from the city, and a most delightful evening was recorded.

At Dinner.

Miss Mary Kinney was the hostess Thursday evening at a very delightful dinner at the Kenyon, given in honor of Miss Porter and Mr. Mann. The table was spread in the ordinary, and the room was beautifully decorated with yellow and white. From the center of the table rose a piece of tall yellow chrysanthemums, and at each place was a dainty bunch of fragrant violets. Handsome candelabra at either end were shaded with violet shades. The guests present were Miss Porter, Miss Holabird, Miss McGuigan, Miss McMillan, Miss McIntyre, Miss Dorothy Kinney and the Messrs. Mann, Porter, Hall, White, Lawrence, Phelps and Aley.

Dancing Party.

A very delightful dancing party was that given by Miss June McIntyre Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Porter. The handsome home was gorgeously decorated for the affair, and the hall and two parlors were thrown open for the gay dancers. Tall, stately palms and ropes of smilax decorated the hall; the library was done in red, and the parlors in white and green. In the sitting room yellow and green were the colors. Excellent dance music was furnished by Christensen's orchestra. About 100 of the young people enjoyed the dancing.

Bride's Luncheon.

Miss Porter was the guest of honor Friday at a delightfully arranged luncheon given by Miss Leta McMillan. The colors used in the decoration of the house and the adorning of the table were those to be carried out in the decorations for Miss Porter's marriage, red and white. A magnificent cluster of American Beauties formed the centerpiece, and heart shaped cards done in red and white indicated the places. The young ladies present to meet Miss Porter were Mrs. Albert Cooper Allen, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Miss Holabird, Miss McGuigan, Miss McIntyre, the Misses Kinney, Miss Dorn, Miss McGrath and Miss Salisbury.

Luncheon.

The luncheon given by Mrs. and Miss Weber on Wednesday last was one of the most beautifully appointed affairs of the season. The whole lower floor of the handsome home was used for the arrangement of the tables, and the various rooms were decorated in distinct color schemes. Yellow was the color chosen for the parlor, tall chrysanthemums and handsome candelabra gracing each table. In the dining room and the library pink was the color, and carnations with shades to match formed the table decorations. Deep red chrysanthemums and palms and ivy in the hall, and from the landing on the stairway came the sweet strains of music furnished by an orchestra. At each place with the card was a bunch of violets. The guests numbered fifty.

For Mrs. Eddie.

Among the largest and most elaborate events of the week was the musical reception given by Mrs. Abner Luman and Mrs. William W. Rivers at the home of the former, in honor of Mrs. James B. Eddie, who has just returned from abroad. The dimly illuminated drawing room floor was a jungle of graceful nodding palms and sweet scented flowers which harmonized effectively with the coloring of the pretty rooms. In the parlors was seen a profusion of dainty chrysanthemums and clumps of golden chrysanthemums adorned the library and in the dining hall one caught the breath of American Beauty roses. To the strains of soft, rippling music, poured forth in song the clear, sweet voice of Mrs. Martha Royce King, while Miss Edna Dwyer and Mrs. Walter Frazer caroled the most caressing of melodies. In the receiving party besides Mesdames Luman, Rivers and Eddie were Mesdames Abiel Leonard, Joseph Young and R. H. Hayward. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. C. O. Whittemore, Mrs. Robert Snedden and Mrs. Doseher. Misses Miller and Gridley presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton served ice and Mrs. Charles Higbee poured coffee. Mesdames Crane, Bird, Thompson and Snyder assisted in the dining room. About 150 guests enjoyed the hospitality of the gracious hostesses.

Reception.

Mrs. M. B. Whitney and Miss Preston were the hostesses on Wednesday at a most beautifully appointed reception at the home of Mrs. Whitney. The house was artistically decorated, the various rooms in different colors, and the whole forming a beautiful harmony. In the parlor where stood the hostesses, tall chrysanthemums in browns and purples graced the room, and in the library pure white chrysanthemums only were used. The dining room was a perfect picture in its deep red coloring, the table decorations harmonizing perfectly with the drapery. Dark red chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece and handsome candelabra holding red candles lighted the table and the buffet. Assisting the hostesses in receiving were Mrs. H. W. Brown, Mrs. Julia Taylor and Mrs. Dickert. Mrs. Cole poured coffee in the dining room and assisting in serving the refreshments were Miss Culmer and Miss Gridley. At a table in the den off the main hall Mrs. Christopher B. Diehl, Jr., and Mrs. Gallagher served punch. In the hall behind a screen of palms an orchestra furnished music. About 200 guests called during the afternoon.

Afternoon Reception.

Another beautiful reception of the past week was that at the home of Mrs. James E. Jennings Thursday, at which Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Sophia Sharp, Mrs. Walter Jennings and Miss Sharp were the hostesses. The handsome home was decorated in exquisite taste, pale green predominating in all the rooms. The hall was arranged with palms and rubber plants and shades of pale green were used on all the lights. In the parlor and the library the shades were of pink and green; candles were placed on mantles and in brackets. The dining room was a beautiful picture with its blending of white and pale green. Shades of the palest green were used on the lights, and candles of the same hue in handsome candelabra lighted the table. Behind a screen of palms in the hall an orchestra was stationed. Assisting the hostesses in receiving their guests were Mrs. Priscilla Jennings, Mrs. W. W. Riter, Mrs. Scott Crismon and Mrs. John N. Sharp. At a table in the library Mrs. Dalby served punch and in the dining room Mrs. L. L. Terry poured coffee. Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Lucile Taylor, Leda Rawlins, Eva Thomas, Elsie Riter and Annette Ferguson. Nearly 200 guests called during the day.
